

2014 By the Numbers

$305 Million	Estimated cumulative economic impact the event has had on the city and state since its inception (includes 2014 projection)
$40.2 Million	Estimated economic impact of last year's event
$10 Million	Amount of money raised for local charities since event inception
$1.2 Million	Amount of money raised for local charities in 2013
130,000	Gatorade Cups
27,000	Total runners in this year's field (ties event record)
26,000	Bags of snack-size Utz potato chips
22,000	Bananas
20,000	Gatorade pure protein bars
17,000	Gallons of Deer Park water
12,000	Energy gel packets
6,700	Gallons of Gatorade
6,000	Oranges
1,000	Total volunteers (expo and race day)
150	Baltimore City Police personnel running to raise money for the Signal 13 Foundation
92	Oldest runner (A 92-year-old male from Cincinnati, OH is running the Marathon)
23	Youngest runner (23-month old is participating in the Transamerica Kids Fun Run)
23	Number of foreign countries represented in the entire field
18	Bands and DJ's along the course
16	Water stations throughout the course
14	Annual running of the Baltimore Running Festival
7	Medical tents

###

CONTACT: Dave Gell, Corrigan Sports Enterprises
corrigansportsmedia@gmail.com